JACKSONVILLE ATHLETIC CLUB GOES DOWN BEFORE ROLLINS

BABY TARS MARCH IN- TO STORM-TORN AREA

TO BE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI'S
FIRST OPPONENTS

Facing what is probably their toughest game of the season the "Baby Tars" boarded busses this morning for Miami, where they will meet on their own ground the freshman "Hurricane" squad of the University of Miami.

The Frosh have plenty of weight and plenty of speed, but previous to the past week Coach Orr has been busy perfecting the Varsity line and has thus been unable to give the fellows all the attention that he would liked to have given them. However, during the past week the Coach has put the Tars through a rather stiff schedule and expresses it as his opinion that the men are in good shape.

Due to lack of knowledge concerning the Miami team, local dopsters have been unable to make any statement as to what the score will be, but it is not expected to run into large numbers, since both teams will enter the game determined to win and will fight for every inch of ground. The Miami gridders are reported to have developed a husky and dangerous eleven with the pick of over forty men who reported for duty when the call for football men was sounded.

Interest in the game is running high in Miami, due to the fact that not only is this their first football game of the season, but it is also the new University of Miami's initial appearance in the world of sport. Over two hundred men have been employed during the past week in getting the stadium in readiness for the game. The University has also invited all the high

YEAR OF STRONG ACTIVITY
PLANNED

The Rollins College Y. M. C. A. is still in its infancy, but it is growing fast. It is the desire of the Administration of the College that this organization become strong in the student life, and there is no reason for its not becoming so.

With the encouragement of Mr. Hibbard and Mr. Davis, of the Orlando Y. M. C. A., a meeting was called October 7th. At this Rodman Lehman was elected chairman, and he appointed a committee to draw up a constitution. It was decided to meet again one week later.

Thirty-five boys were present at the meeting. The constitution was read and adopted. After this a nominating committee was appointed to select candidates for the offices. Of these Elbert Winderweedle was elected president, Robert Burhans, vice president; Howard Delamater, secretary, and Edward Schurman, assistant treasurer. The treasurer, according

LIST OF IMPROVEMENTS ANNOUNCED BY MANAGER

CAMPUS RENOVATED AND BEAUTIFIED DURING SUMMER

In reply to a request by Dean Carrothers for a statement of the development projects that have been carried out on the campus this summer and their approximate cost, Dr. William H. Short, business manager of the college, has issued the following account:

1. We have already spent approximately $32,000 in campus betterments. These include:

(a) Improvements of the lake front,
(b) Repairs in all buildings, including replastering, painting, decorating, refinishing floors, putting in windows, new doors, repairing transoms, etc

(c) Reducing fire hazards and danger of injury from antiquated electric wiring in buildings, rebuilding; rebuilding fire escapes, straightening stairs, building new chimney, putting in exit lights, etc. All this at a cost of about $5,000.

(d) Repairing furniture throughout the college, some items being bed mattresses remade at a cost of about $1,500, all bedsteads re-enameled, all chairs, tables, bureaus refinished and revarnished.

(e) Much new equipment in Commons, including an electrically operated coffee urn, toaster and ice cream freezer.

(f) Roofs of all buildings mended with the exception of Knowles and Carnegie, which will be done this autumn.

(g) Pump house repaired so as to be able to get continuous supply of water in buildings and on lawns.

IRVING BACHELLER, THE WELL-KNOWN WRITER, AMONG DONORS

Dr. Taintor, the college librarian, has placed in our hands the following list of new books in the library, all gifts of friends and benefactors of the college.

Mr. Irving Bacheller, of Winter Park, has presented the library with a complete set of his books.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace a number of copies of their Year Book for 1925 and 1926.

The New York Stock Exchange, a recently published volume on "The Work of the Stock Exchange."

The Life of General William Booth, two volumes, by Harold Begbie; and the 1926 Handbook of American Prisons (These books are assumed to be complimentary until their source is ascertained).

PRES. HOLT AND COACH TO ATTEND S.I.A.A. MEET

PRESIDENT ESPECIALLY HONORED
BY THE ASSOCIATION

Rollins will be especially well represented at the next annual meeting of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which convenes at Birmingham, Ala., on December 10.

In addition to Captain James L. Orr, who will be the Rollins delegate, Rollins will be represented by President Hamilton Holt, who is the only college executive who has been invited to deliver an address before this important body.

The S. I. A. A. is an organization composed of the leading small colleges of the South, whose object is to promote clean sportsmanship and encourage good fellowship among the colleges. Three years ago Rollins was admitted to membership when the meeting was held at Charleston, S. C., at which time the Tars were represented by A. J. Hanna. Last year Rollins helped Stetson nad Southern to gain membership, so that all the Florida colleges would be on the same athletic basis.

At the annual meeting of the S. I. A. A. regulations governing intercollegiate participation are revised or made and schedules for the next year are also made up at that time.

The subject of President Holt's address before the body will be along the lines of clean sportsmanship in colleges.

Like Rollins, Georgia Tech. has innovated a "Plebe Week" so that the rats may become accustomed to their new surroundings without interfering with those higher up.

FUND APPORTIONED BY NEW STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT ASSOCIATION MEANS
DISTRIBUTED AT FIRST MEETING OF BOARD

Members of the Student Council were elected last Monday and that night met in the Dean's office to budget the Student Association's funds. These funds are composed of the $10 registration fee paid by all students upon entering the college. They are figured to amount to approximately $5,000 this year. The apportioning of this is placed in the hands of the Council. The Council is formed by the election of two members from each class, the Dean, the Dean of Women, one faculty representative, and the president of the Student Association, sitting as chairman, are also members. The purpose of this body is not only to apportion the budget, but to decide on all matters which require immediate attention, which the general student association is too unwieldy a body to handle.

The first action taken in the meeting of last Monday evening was to set

GOAL IN THIRD QUARTER TURNS TIDE TO TARS 7-0

TEAM INVINCIBLE IN HARD-FOUGHT BATTLE—McCOY SCORES

The Rollins College gridders added another victory to their list Saturday when they turned back the attack of the Springfield Athletic Club, of Jacksonville, to win by a score of 7 to 0.

McCoy, playing halfback for Rollins, in the opening of the second half took the ball and made a beautiful run around right end for 35 yards and placed the ball on the 1-foot line. The Springfield line held on the next play but McCoy took the ball on the following movement and plunged through the line, then kicked goal for the 7 points scored in the game.

The game throughout was close and bitterly fought. Substitutions were the vogue. In the third quarter, with the freshmen playing the game for Rollins, the Jacksonville aggregation was practically held in their tracks, and, led by McCoy, the Tars made good gains by plunging through holes in the Springfield line and skirting the ends.

Zehler, captain of the Tars, and his backfield mates consisting of Crawford, Conway, Balliard and Cross, starred for the winners, though the brilliant work of McCoy was the feature of the game. Zehler plunged almost at will through the line and swept around the ends, while Hillard starred by placing beautiful punts and running back punts.

Crawford was lost to the Tars in the last few minutes of play when he was injured and had to be taken out of the game. Crawford played a

It has long been our personal desire to see a literary periodical on the campus. Any college of the nature and location of Rollins could not but be a source of much material for such. Failing in the establishment of an organ of this type we are adding every fourth week a special supplement to the Sandspur in which will be published as nearly representative as possible the particular type of creative spirit induced under the Rollins atmosphere. In this issue we make our modest bow. Sometime in the near future, it is our most sincere hope that there will appear a new publication devoted entirely to that field.

UNDERTONES

The following article taken from the Cornell Sun is reprinted here with the thought that the "glove fits the hand" of a great many of us here in Rollins:

"There is nothing more detrimental to the morale of an organization than an undertone. Specifically speaking, an undertone is a sort of low guttural muttering that creates a lot of disturbance without being discovered. You can't walk around the audience and catch an undertone, and say, 'Ladies and gentlemen, I have in my hand a large, well-fed, thriving undertone!' No, indeed. If you want to catch an undertone, you have to disguise yourself as a Bolshevik or a Soviet or something, or slink around cigar stores, or fraternity houses, thus taking the undertone unawares.

"To get down to specific cases, an undertone is something like this: 'Say, buddy, you think Cornell has a football team, don't you? Well, let me tell you that if they ever got up against a real team like Yale or California they couldn't win in a million years. The trouble with that team is this. * * * And so on, ad infinitum. Or this: 'The honor system is my idea of a good joke. The only place they can afford to have an honor system is at Sing Sing, where they're all in separate cells. So don't let anyone ever kid you into thinking you've got to stop cribbin', boy.'

"That's what an undertone is. It goes slinking around knocking something all the time, and doing its best to start a revolution. But if you tried a million years, you couldn't get it out in the open where you could get a full swing on its receding jaw. It is essentially a jungle reptile.

"If you've got a kick coming, get out in the middle of the field and kick, but DON'T BE AN UNDERTONE."

AUNT SOPHIE'S CORNER

Love, Liberty and the Exclusion of Snobbishness

Just a word concerning this column: Many of my friends, and people seeking my advice upon various personal subjects, have beseeched me to give the public the advantage of my wide knowledge on innumerable vital questions. Therefore, it is with the idea of assisting anyone solve their perplexing problem that I assume the editing of this section. Should anyone desire a written personal answer, please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope with your letter.

Today I have selected somewhat at random two of the many letters which have already reached me. One of the girls has a real problem to solve. It is my opinion that she is too sentimental, although I admire her faithfulness to her friend. But read the missile yourself:

Dear Aunt Sophie:—For a long time I've put off writing to you because I thought my problem might solve itself, but now the worst has come. Please, please! help me.

You see my whole trouble started over canoeing dates. Now one of the rules says—darn it!—that each person has to be able to swim fifty yards. Well, Miss G—wouldn't let me go because I couldn't swim at all. Then I racked my poor brain and finally doped it all out. Jack—he's the fellow I'm sweet on, and he's the most darlingest boy, Aunt Sophie, really, you ought to see him: big and tall and black hair, n'everything, and well, anyway, it was this way: Jack could swim a hundred yards so I told Miss G— that that would make fifty yards for each of us, but can you imagine, the mean thing said that after such a remark as that she could understand why gentlemen prefer blondes! And I'm a brunette, too!

Well, to please Jack I decided to learn to swim. Donning my new suit—it's a type the French call "expose"—I went down to the lake looking for the instructor. You know, Aunt Sophie, I don't understand him at all. He said he was afraid for me to go near the water, because all the fishes would probably hold their breath and suffocate to death. Of course the beanery wouldn't have anything to serve on Friday if such a thing happened, so I didn't learn to swim.

This is my case. What, what! can I do? You have so kindly helped others, please do something for me. I'll expect to see this in print soon.

B. B. F.

Answer:—Your problem is a very peculiar one. If Miss G— would like to do a humane act she should let you go canoeing by yourself on a wild, windy night. That, failing to accomplish the desired results, I suggest that you try learning to swim in the Dead Sea.

AUNT SOPHIE.

Dear Aunt Sophie:—Will you please answer the following questions for me? Should one remove one's hat when attending a cinema. When two girls and a boy are walking along a street, where ought the boy walk? At what age can a girl safely fall in love?

Thanking you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

WONDERING.

Answer:—(1) It is quite proper to remove your hat. (2) The boy should walk on the side nearer the street, the girl in whom he is more interested walking beside him. (3) Seventy!

Conservatory Notes

When Miss Cox plays her violin "Silence" is the password. One just can't make a noise for if they did something might be missed. Tuesday morning in chapel she played "Balade and Polonaise" or "A Song and a Dance." It was a beautiful piece beautifully rendered!

Those who attended the Phi Beta tea Tuesday afternoon received another lovely surprise. The program was in charge of Miss Virginia Richardson and was as follows:

Piano Solo, "The Brook." Alvera Barbor.

Reading, "The Limitations of Youth." Anne Hathaway.

Solo, "Love Is a Bubble." "I Know." Elizabeth Atkisson.

These girls are all members of Phi Beta, and are talented Conservatory students.

Conservatory Announces New System

The School of Music announces a new arrangement by which Piano is to be taught to students in groups of three. The rate is much lower than that for private lessons; the credit allowed is the same. Those interested may inquire at the Conservatory office or see Miss Niles.

expressed himself as very enthusiastic over the past records of the glee clubs. "There is no better means," he stated, "of establishing a thorough college organization. Glee club work always implies a certain amount of regular and assiduous study which is in itself most excellent training. I would like to have more of the good voices I know to be on the campus come out of their hiding places and interest themselves in this work."

The glee clubs have been established for a good many years on the Rollins campus. Their concerts given here and in various points throughout the state are something to be anticipated by the members.

A last call has been issued for applicants and those who wish to have a hearing may arrange to do so either through Professor Anderson or Mrs. Johnston, of the Conservatory, within the next few days.

DEBATING

Debating is a form of college activity that seems to have lost its hold on the Rollins students. Can we not bring it to the fore by taking a more genuine interest in the opportunities offered this year? Rollins is planning to have several inter-collegiate debates. It is just as much an honor to represent your school on a debating team as on any other sort of team. We need more debaters! Stetson, Southern, Florida, Brenau want to try their skill against our debaters. There isn't much time for preparing for these opponents, so not one minute can be lost. This is a call for loyal Rollins students who think that they can prove themselves in debate. We have such students here—let's get them into the PUSH.

(i) Lyman Hall changed from gymnasium into a classroom building.

j) Reception rooms of Lakeside and Pinehurst redecorated, equipped with new rugs, and Lakeside with new furniture.

2. Other betterments now in process:

(a) Overhauling of all heating plants and putting in new steam boiler in Knowles.

(b) New athletic and dancing pavilion on lake front. These will cost in the neighborhood of $6,000.

3. (a) New equipment for Biological, Chemical and Physics Laboratories at a cost of about $1,000.

(b) Books for departmental libraries at a cost of about $1,000.

(c) Chairs and desks for offices and classrooms at a cost of $2,000.

It will be seen, therefore, that the entire expense of work completed, now in process and contemplated is about $46,000.

In addition the entire business of the college has been carefully studied with the object of saving money wherever it can be saved and of getting more for money expended.

Jackson, also playing halfback for Springfield, likewise hit the guards and ends for big and consistent gains. Smith and Trump also played brilliantly for Jacksonville.

The Y. M. C. A. is a vital need in any college and can become especially helpful at Rollins. It is the only non-fraternity organization on the campus. As such it can become a place of fellowship with other students. Its strong influence will soon be felt on the campus.

Make up your mind to come to the meeting next Thursday night at 7:30 in Knowles Hall. Get in at the beginning and help shove it over. Any townspeople who are interested are invited also. The Y is for Rollins and vicinity.

MARY PICKFORD'S NEW FILM HER GREATEST

Rollicking Mary Pickford is back again!

The famous little star, whose screen masterpieces have delighted millions throughout the world, has produced another great picture—which has been called her greatest—and it is coming to the Baby Grand Theatre Monday, matinee and night.

Mary's newest picture is "Sparrows." It deals with the adventures of a band of youngsters on a baby farm. While there is a little message in the picture, as there is in all good pictures, "Sparrows" first of all is entertainment and the sort of entertainment that Mary Pickford fans like.

Mary is cast as "Mama Mollie," the little girl who mothers the forlorn children on the baby farm. She pilots them through many adventures providing much laughter, many thrills and not a few tears.

That is Miss Pickford's unfailing recipe for an evening's entertainment and in "Sparrows" she is said to have one of the best pictures she has ever made.

The locale of "Sparrows" is in a swamp country of a southern state. Here on an island farm the little scraps of humanity are kept by a cruel keeper and his wife. How they finally overcome the obstacles placed in their path and find their way to a happier life makes up a story as thrilling and as interesting as can be imagined.

Plenty of comedy lightens the more drab sequences and there is action from the opening scenes to the final fade out.

Cast as the ragged little girl, "Mollie," Miss Pickford finds a role that is ideal for her talents. She manages the tots with a skilled hand, and outwits the cruel keeper who thinks more of his pigs than the little children.

Miss Pickford is supported by a splendid cast including one of the most remarkable bands of little children ever assembled in a picture.

Shive to Boarding House Fresh: "I'll say, old man, I wouldn't touch the rice pudding. There was a wedding yesterday."

Larry Vance (at the State Fair): "Look at the people. Aren't they numerous?"

The Alpha Omegas were entertained in a week-end party by several of their members.

A lovely dinner was served at Vic's home Saturday evening. The table was decorated by individual ribbons of the sorority colors, scarlet and olive, that were tied from the candelabrum in the center of the table and laid at each place. The favours were miniature straw hats with a rubber elastic fitting under the chin.

After dinner the crowd adjourned to "Honey Bunch" in Betty's car. Afterwards she took them for a ride. They all wore the straw hats as protection from the "chilly" Florida air, and sang all the Rollins songs.

A dainty midnight lunch was awaiting at Julia's. At this time the sorority received a midnight visitor. Her name was Aunt Jane, and she was personated by Mrs. Fariss dressed in an old-fashioned gown and bonnet.

The sleepy party tumbled into bed about two o'clock.

The Southern breakfast at Julia's Sunday morning was heartily enjoyed, then Mrs. Fariss took the party for a lovely ride. Betty served Sunday dinner, after which a meeting was held. Those participating were Julia Fariss, Edwina Peterson, Geraldine Lawrence, Evelyn Dula, Betty Oller, Virginia Lawrence, and Victoria Correll.

T. K. N. AT HOME

Florida Alpha Chapter of Theta Kappa Nu fraternity was host to over two hundred students, faculty members and townspeople at an "Open House" at the fraternity home on Interlachen and Fairbanks avenues last Wednesday night.

The boys have purchased some new furniture this fall and this, coupled with the beautiful curtains given them by their fraternity mother, Mrs. Bartlett, and other improvements made during the summer, had put their home in shipshape condition for the reception and entertainment of their visitors. The guests were taken on an inspection tour of the rooms and then were invited to partake freely of Chef Daniels' punch and cake.

Many of the visitors were much impressed with the housekeeping ability of the boys and strictly on the QT it is understood that several of the fellows have turned down proposals of marriage since then, stating as their reason that they did not wish to sign up as house maids for life.

Many of our friends have also wanted to know where "Big Dan" got his recipe for making punch, but Dan says to tell them all that he is not able to impart the secret to anyone, that it is an art that comes only to the faithful and pure in heart.

THETA ENTERTAINS

Theta Kappa Nu entertained about forty of the new men at an informal feed last Monday evening from eight-thirty till eleven o'clock.

Sunday night Phidough gave a big bow-wow at the Sigma Phi house in high honor of the campus gallants who have been so faithful in feeding him and erecting double-deckers and doing all sorts of hard labor about the house. Phidough was a perfect host. He sat in the middle of the table with his family gathered about him and beamed at his guests. Twenty places were set and all well filled. Barbara is a good cook. She served waffles, bacon, iced coffee and nice red apples for dessert.

Miss Gartland arrived just in time to have some of the repast and to enjoy the entertainment following, which was all the more delightful for being spontaneous. Mac. Roberts played the piano and some good numbers were rendered in close harmony. The talented Walker family performed. Annabelle kept her audience spellbound by her clever readings, and Bud told his favorite bedtime story, entitled Goldilocks (revised). Bob Burhans showed some more talent by giving "Sam McGee" and "Dan McGrew," all of which were received with uproarious appreciation. The party broke up at ten o'clock and said reluctant farewell to Phidough, who retired to his accustomed place on the mantel, with a satisfied smile. He'll give another party soon.

K. E. KOMMETS

Virginia Mitchell has moved in, to again lend her bright and shining presence.

K. E. has a staunch supporter in Josephine, who made the niggers show their color at the Rummage Sale on Saturday.

Breakers of the K.E. diving board, please call and repair the same.

Herb is a perpetual visitor to K.E. Kappa Epsilon wishes to announce as honoraries, Mrs. Hiram Powers, Virginia Thomas, Katherine Huttig, and Elinor Upmeyer.

Edna and June spent the week-end at Las Novidades in Ybor City.

Trixie staged a late moonlight picnic Sunday night; 10c fine. She sez it's worth it.

Evelyn had a good time this week-end. These imported sheiks from Lakeland know their onions.

We leave it to Martha to make the impressions. Everyone enjoyed the candle lighting service Sunday night.

Big spread Sunday night. Mrs. Chaffee did the honors.

Announcement: Elizabeth dressed in 15 minutes Saturday night. What was the drawing card, "Libby?"

"Did you notice the conductor looking at you as if you hadn't paid your fare?"

"Sure, and did you notice me looking at him as if I had?"—Juggler.

"Sir, I believe you're trying to kiss me!"

"Well, now that you understand, suppose we quit assaulting each other and co-operate a little."—Jack-o'-Lantern.

As Little Brothers See It

"Let's play college, what d' you say?"

"All right, I'll get a pipe and you get daddy's check-book."—Juggler.

Myrtle Petty: "I wonder if it is true that the length of a boy's arm is equal to the circumference of a girl's waist?"

Fresh: "Let's get a string and measure it."

SIGMA PHIRE CRACKERS

Visitors' Week was celebrated at the Sigma Phi House. Mary Lou's father, brother and sister-in-law were in town. They brought first hand report from Miami. Martha Willimon's mother and father came and brought her more ginger. Everybody's happy.

Sally Lou's and Pep's colds sent them home for a few days and they returned in a somewhat improved state of health.

Cliff Millsbaugh and Bud Walker brought peanuts Thursday night. The Starving Sisters starve no longer. Weekly donations help much.

The lights went out all over the house Sunday night. It is more or less convenient according to the individual.

The more frequent visitors are rejoicing in the fact that Spark Plug, the house horse, does not possess the same appetite as displayed by Phidough.

The boys worked all Saturday morning erecting another couch in the solarium. The strangest opportunities for employment are offered. That very evening the apple-polishers' union was organized—Guy, Jack and Ray More, officers. There were apples, bananas and fudge a-plenty in the house Sunday. Anybody hungry had better hurry. No one has any appetite, but whatever edible hangs about vanishes with astonishing rapidity.

ALPHA OMEGA

Jerry received a mysterious letter the other day. It caused a great deal of consternation. For information consult Gin.

Evelyn evidently specializes in fires and rescue parties, but she wouldn't for the world let any one know about it.

Tiny is harbouring a deep and profound secret, that is why it is necessary for her to go into occasional periods of solitude.

Vic and Judy evidently believe in co-operative transportation, or is it competitive?

Vic specializes in straw hats and oysters.

Quoth Judith: "Love me, love my camphor bottle."

Evelyn wants a nice name. We suggest "Rat." The question is why?

Thanks to "Vic" we do not need to purchase a Victrola at the present time.

Everyone votes that the height of sweetness in silence is our Betty.

Straw hats surely received a rush of popularity Saturday evening. Everybody's doing it.

Everyone received "Aunt Jane" with a great deal of enthusiasm at midnight Saturday. Evidently she believes in late hours.

Betty says she knows a thrilling place to take a ride. Dark shadows frequent the place.

Everyone is crazy about the kewpie-doll favours given at the midnight lunch at Julia's.

Julia has a new nic-name. It's the Lu-Lu. Everyone wants to bring her, though. Ask Ralph.

Gin, awaking from a pleasant day dream—"Oh yes, it certainly was." Gerry will give particulars. Gin says she believes in being polite at all costs.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. membership service was held at Knowles Hall last Sunday evening at 6:30. Sixty-five girls were made members of Y. W. Some were new girls and some those who were here last year, but all are working toward a common goal. The service, which is called the candle-lighting service, was written especially for the occasion by Mrs. Sheffield, of Winter Park. The part of Love was played by Barbara Sheffield, who fitted the part exactly. Miss Sheffield gave her light to girls representing the Spirit of the hearth, Work, Light and Inspiration. The keeper of the lights lighted her candle from these four and passed the flame to the Cabinet, who in turn passed it to the new members. The entire scene was accompanied by soft music rendered by Miss Niles and Miss Cox.

Dorothy Kinzie spent the week-end in Fort Myers. She drove up with her family on Sunday afternoon.

Anna Bell Walker was the guest of her brother, Foster, last Saturday. She seems to like Stetson very much.

The second Friday-night pep meeting was held in Bernice McIntosh's room. Maybe there would be lots more pep displayed in Knowles if they served ice cream and cake as she did. Some people say that McCoy made his touch-down as a result of this extra practice. Besides the yells were many other interesting features of this party. Norma Workman told the fortunes of the crowd while Demaris Wilson stood on her head and someone else poured water out the window on Johnnie Bostwick. Is that a nice way to treat a visitor, girls? Especially when men are so scarce at Cloverleaf.

Another girl has signed her name to the list of girls rooming in Cloverleaf. Constance Lynch. Rollins is popular with Tampa girls, and we expect a "Tampa Club" before long.

Dot Conner spent Sunday at her home in Mt. Dora. Her roomie, Helen Link, spent the day in Orlando as usual.

All the Cloverleaf girls say they enjoyed the Theta House opening. The pictures in Ikie's room were especially interesting.

Charmain asks very innocently what a necking party is. Can anyone tell her?

Ione Pope bid farewell to her beloved room mates for the week-end and called on her parents.

In order that Orlando might know that Rollins won the game Saturday some of the students went over and told them. Dorothy Conner, Mary Fisher, Mary Hall and "Tim", Harriett Pepkorn, Demaris Wilson, were among them.

We certainly do go for the songs they sing in chapel these days, especially the one about "old chairs to mend" and "new mackerel."

How many times have some of the "Cloverines" seen the "Temptress?"

I think Hall, Conner, Pope, Fisher and Link could tell you. D. B. McKay might add a few words, too. He, Anne, and Elizabeth liked it very much.

Bozo, mascot of Chase Hall, enjoyed the football game immensely. Where did Joe and Ed find him?

Nearly all of Helen Wright's rabbits are dead.

Mary Fisher's pet expression is geedabub. She acquired it Saturday night.

Verna Maxon spent the week-end in Tampa with her family.

Marjorie and "Peg" Conning spent Sunday in Windermere as guests of Julia Lawrence.

Eugenia Tuttle's family visited her Saturday and Sunday. The archery contest was enjoyed by the girls who saw it. The ledge beats the bleachers in a game of this kind.

Esteleen Sternberg went to Haines City for the week-end. We always miss those people who go home for the week-end.

Catherine Adams' boy friend came down Friday and we saw very little of Cath. after that, except in a roadster.

Abie: Misteh Ottist, I vant you should make me a doughnut sign.

Artist: Certainly, but I thought you were a butcher, not a baker.

Abie: Sure I'm a butcheh; I vant it a sign: "Doughnut handle the feesh."

THE FORUM

ROLLINS! or Rollins?

Fellow Students:

The worst game of the season is only a week away. Stetson, our traditional rival, and most dangerous opponent of this season, is going to invade our own home territory and give us battle. But they are not going to carry off the bacon. ARE THEY? NO! They shall not, because they are going to meet a spirit on the part of both students and players, tough and unbreakable, the more effective because so little expected.

This is not idle talk. There is a great deal of spirit in this school. If you don't believe it, ask any student what they think of this or that about the college. They'll tell you quickly and definitely. "That is spirit." They have an opinion. They think constantly about their school, its progress and its welfare. Now the point is to collect those two hundred and seventy-eight spirits and make it singular, "The Spirit," "THE ROLLINS SPIRIT."

Tom Brown's spirit reaches only as far as his voice or his pen. But the "ROLLINS SPIRIT" will carry clear around the globe.

Many classes have graduated and left gifts behind. Let us outdo them all and leave behind a priceless heritage, a reputation for pep, energy, fight and fair play for opponents, loyalty, co-operation and good-will among ourselves. Let us show by our actions that the name of Rollins and Spirit are synonymous. We are here in college building character, we should not forget to build that of our "Alma Mater," as fine and proud as our own. I think we are one in saying I believe in a united Rollins spirit. I believe in Rollins, for Rollins is made up of two hundred and seventy-seven buddies and myself. Around me I have a fine faculty and equipment provided for my benefit. I believe I can make Rollins (my collective self) what I will and I am going to see that it is the best. I believe that this is best accomplished by holding a firm spirit of understanding and co-operation. In this way every student becomes my buddy, drawn to me and I to him by a common ideal, common activities and interests. I also believe that this unified spirit should and shall be demonstrated. I am going to back my buddies. I am going to cheer them when successful; I am going to cheer them more when hard pressed. Win or lose, I am behind them to the end. What's the matter with Rollins? She's Alright! All together now, three cheers for the team:

Rah—Rah—Rah
Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rol—lins
Rol—lins
Rol—lins
Team! Team! Team!

Don't forget that date, October 30th. On that day Stetson and the Rollins Tars are going to make history. In order to make it right Rollins needs every student to talk it, eat it, and sleep it, between now and then. Not only that, she needs every one of you at the mass meetings and in the cheering section at the game. Advertising banners will be up in the main streets of Winter Park and Orlando, and the game announced from WDBO. Many hundreds of people will be there. Know your cheers and songs, and be on tap early for the pep fest and game. Cheers and songs to be printed in next week's edition. Here are the words to a new song that should be learned by every student:

Hip Hip Hooray boys cheer for the team

The lines a dream, the ends supreme
For quarters and halves we'll fight to redeem

With Rollins goal alone in view.
They tip the scales just a ton
Oh can't they run each mother's son
Fighting for fame in Alma Mater's name

Vict'ry and honor for aye.

Ain't they fine?

CHEER LEADER.

NEW GIRLS, ATTENTION

In Rollins College there are five sororities, one of which is national and four of which are local. A national is a sorority having chapters in at least five different colleges throughout the country. A local usually has but one chapter. Phi Beta, the national, is an honorary fraternity whose principal interests are music, dramatics and scholarship. The other four together form the Panhellenic Association of Rollins College. They are all local social organizations.

For those who may not realize exactly what a sorority means perhaps a few words of explanation might be in order. Primarily, a sorority is a group of girls gathered together for a two-fold purpose. (a) Within the group to help each other to develop into finer women and (b) outside the group to work in every way possible toward the improvement of the college and the community where it is situated. In a sorority girls are given the opportunity to develop their talents and powers of leadership. It teaches a large number of girls how to get along harmoniously with others. There are certain standards such as scholarship that must be maintained by all members. It is much easier to live up to our ideals of all sorts if we know that there are others working toward the same end who are there to help us when we need it—and whom, in turn, we may be able to help.

In a practical way a group working together can accomplish much more than individuals. For a concrete example: last year certain sororities raised fairly large sums of money for the college, whereas ununited individuals would never have had the incentive or the power to do so. College spirit and enthusiasm are fostered and strengthened by group enthusiasm.

From their very nature it can easily be seen that comparatively few can be invited to membership in these organizations. Many points have to be taken into consideration; congeniality with the entire group, scholastic standing, the mutual benefit to be derived from such an association. The fact that a girl is not invited does not make her any less charming or less worthy. Perhaps she does not fulfill all requirements as stated in the Panhellenic Rules on eligibility. Sometimes the quota for new members is reached. Often some of the strongest members do not enter until the second year.

According to Panhellenic Rules the first few weeks of college were to be a period of non-rushing. This means that no girl was to mention sorority in any way nor to show especial attention to any new girl. If new girls felt the attitude of sorority girls to be indifferent it was merely because they were trying to live up to these rules strictly. Now, during the rushing season, the first regulation still holds. No girl is to talk sorority either in disparagement of another or in explanation of her own. No invitation to membership either oral or written may be given or implied before Pledge Day, October 30. If any points concerning sorority still puzzle any one, Miss Gartland will be glad to make any necessary explanations.

Bughouse Fairy Tales

Grandma settled back in the chair, lit a fresh Chesterfield; (adv.) took a big "shot" of Gordon Water and began: "Now children, not so long ago there was a young man who went to college to study."

Little Jane: "Women?"

Grandma: "No."

L. J.: We don't want to hear about him then, because that's a lot of orange juice.

John: Please, Grandma, tell us about the wild party at the club last night.

Grandma: Sh! Grandpa thinks I went to the theatre. He's liable to hear you.
